This site is located in the triangle Nantes-Rennes-Vannes and 20kms north of the city of Saint Nazaire. From the UK, the nearest French port is Saint Malo, 170kms from Guérande. There is also the possibility of touching french soil at the ports of Roscoff (Ireland) and Cherbourg.

The site is both modern and well equipped with swimming pools, restaurants and a shop.

Domaine de Léveno is located in the lovely, unspoilt countryside of the Loire Atlantic region. It's close to Brière Regional Natural Park, a wetland reserve rich with canals and a wide variety of birds. It's also home to the medieval town of Clisson, where the area's dry white Muscadet wine is made.

The park sits within the walled gardens of the medieval town of Guérande. The town is a pretty place to wander round, with its cobbled streets, 15th century ramparts and stone gateways. Head to the open areas around the impressive Collegiate Church of Saint Aubin and you'll find lots of lovely spots to enjoy a meal or a drink.

Note:- Payment for accommodation/meals will be required at the end of the booking form and your money will be refundable up until the 30th April 2025.

All charges will be paid via PayPal upon completing the booking form though a PayPal account is not required to do so.

There was a little confusion over the dates. As an international rally various countries advertise event start and finish dates differently. In the UK we see Thursday the 12th and Monday the 16th as travelling days.

We are restricted to 230 attendees and all bookings must be completed by the 31st of March 2025, this has been set by the resort owners.
